

DAVEN MICHAELS SPEAKING INTRO

Daven Michaels is the 'real deal' global lifestyle entrepreneur, international speaker and New York Times best selling author. He's CEO of 123Employee, the premier outsourcing service provider with hundreds of employees in the Philippines, music and film producer, author, event producer, global real estate investor, business consultant and business investor... and he's able to do all this and be a family man because he discovered the secret to success very early on in his entrepreneurial career!

While many talk about and write books about living the laptop lifestyle, running a virtual business, outsourcing, building a million dollar business with a virtual team, Daven has done it, created a blueprint for it, his book on how to do it became a New York Times best seller, and now he has made it his mission to help others do the same.

Daven has been an entrepreneur since the age of 15, that's over 30 years now. During this time he stumbled across a business formula that he's used to turn multiple diverse business ventures into extremely successful businesses, including a few multiple-million dollar home runs. Daven was one of the original 'Growth Hacking' pioneers, before the term was even created. He figured out very early on that you need two essential ingredients for creating the new wealth and freedom lifestyle, the first great marketing and secondly, a team that can do it for you.

In 2011, after years of personal business success, he decided to use the power of public speaking to cast a wider net and help entrepreneurs all over the world achieve greater success. Today, Daven Michaels is considered to be one of the worlds foremost digital marketing, outsourcing and virtual team building experts and has shared the stage with such notables as President Bill Clinton.
